MEMORANDUM FOR:

SUBJECT

: Changes in Organization and Personnel in DD/S&T

1. During the past several weeks, senior officers from DD/S&T visited each of the addressees and, while there, informed them of recent organizational and personnel changes in DD/S&T. This note is intended as a follow-up to these conversations to provide formal notification of these changes and perhaps add some further details.

2. Changes in DD/S&T Organization -

a. On 15 September 1965, the Office of Special Projects (OSP) was established to

25X1A

b. On 25 October 1965, the mission, functions and analytical responsibilities of BMSD/OSI and those of FMSAC were combined into a new organization which retains the name FMSAC. Therefore, all messages relating to responsibilities of BMSD should now be referred to FMSAC. However, OSI still retains responsibilities in the field of bio-medicine and bio-astronautics (Life Sciences Division); some astro-geophysical responsibilities (General Sciences Division); and ABM and AAM responsibilities remain with the Defensive Systems Division (DSD).
